- 3-4 feature articles
- A letter from the clerk of QEW
- News and resources from Meetings all across the U.S. and Canada
- 1-2 book or video reviews
- Information from the QEW General Secretary
- Letters from Our Readers

Publishing Schedule

We publish BeFriending Creation quarterly: January-February-March, April-May-June, July-August-September, October-November-December.

To submit something for consideration for BeFriending Creation, please send your submission to our Publications Coordinator.

Content Considerations

Each issue of BeFriending Creation shares updates, news, and opportunities from Quaker Earthcare Witness. In addition, we welcome feature articles, new items, resources, letters, and more from our readers. We look for articles between 400 - 600 words. Topics could include:

- Stories that show how Friends and their Meetings have transformed their lifestyles or made spirit-led changes in care for Earth.
- Articles sharing items of interest, travels, or concern related to spirit-led action on behalf of the environment.
- News articles and reflections sharing Friends’ efforts and involvement with other environmental groups and gatherings.
- News of what Friends Yearly, Quarterly, and Monthly meetings, Unity with Nature groups, Peace & Social Concerns committees are doing in accord with QEW goals and objectives.
- Updates from other Friends organizations on their efforts related to environmental concerns.

Additionally, we welcome the following submitted content and will include it as space permits:

- News from other spiritually based religious organizations working on behalf of Earth;
- Reflections or personal narratives sharing what it means to nurture a sense of reverence for Earth or how spirit-led openings have helped the writer live out his or her Earthcare witness;
